Application for Doctoral Research Scholarship in Healthy Aging

Due Date: October 20, 2013, 5:00 PM (if the 20th falls on a weekend, applications will be due the following Monday at 5:00pm)

A $7,500 de Tornyay Center Scholarship will be awarded to one doctoral student to pursue research related to healthy aging/gerontology during Autumn 2013-Spring 2014. Funds are unrestricted and are intended to support students while doing their doctoral research (dissertation or other research project). Eligible students must be enrolled in the doctoral program (DNP or PhD) in nursing at UW and have a doctoral committee chair to mentor them and guide their research.

Selection for this award is based on the following criteria:

- Relevance to gerontology, aging
- Significance of the proposed project
- Feasibility for project completion by the end of the current academic year
- Progress in your educational program
- Commitment to gerontology
- Quality of the application

In addition, preference is given to those who:

- Need financial assistance
- Not received a previous Healthy Aging Scholarship
- Plan to graduate in the next 12 months

NOTE: A limited number of scholarships, supported by our community partners, may be available for specific projects focused on designated areas of gerontological nursing.

For additional information, please see the "Scholars" section of the de Tornyay Center website (www.agingcenter.org) or contact us at: agingctr@u.washington.edu; 206-616-4276.
