

25th Anniversary Celebration of the de Tornyay Center for Healthy Aging

1998-2023

The de Tornyay Center is dedicated to addressing and embracing the changing needs of our population, building robust pathways to healthy aging that are supported by innovative nursing research and a nursing workforce knowledgeable about older adults.

Curricular Innovations in Higher Education and Community-Based Programs

Community-Based Partnerships and International Collaborations

 University of Freiburg

 Karolinska Institute

 Mahidol University

Healthy Aging

Building and Promoting
Nursing Science

Mentoring Nursing Students and Trainees

de Tornyay Center for Healthy Aging

Lead Partner

Lali

A Fireside Chat

Sarah Shannon, PhD, RN, FAAN, Dean and Professor, Mark and Robyn Jones College of Nursing,
Montana State University

Nancy Fugate Woods, PhD, RN, FAAN,
Dean Emerita, School of Nursing,
University of Washington

Musical Interludes

A Ukrainian Folk Ensemble

Poster Presentations